

“The day the singing stopped , the world fell silent and the only voice that could be heard was Noah’s.....”

“Once upon a time, there was a unicorn who had a butterfly. One day the unicorn lost the butterfly . She searched for the butterfly everywhere, but she could not find him. So she went to see a teddy called Noah and told him she had lost her butterfly.

Noah sang to the unicorn “don’t worry, we’ll get a raven to show us the way to your butterfly”.

So the raven went high and low in the cloud and then he found the butterfly in a rainbow maze in the sky. So then everyone started singing and were happy again. “
